

Top 10 Events on Route 6 in October 2025

October is the perfect month to hit the road along Historic Route 6—crisp air, colorful foliage, and some of the best festivals of the year. From coast to coast, here are ten can't-miss events:

1. Shipshewana Fall Crafters Fair – Oct 2–4 (Shipshewana, IN)
Handmade Amish crafts, food, and entertainment near the northern Indiana stretch of Route 6.
2. Downtown Grand Junction Art Festival – Oct 3–4 (Grand Junction, CO)
A celebration of art and culture in Colorado's creative district, right on Route 6.
3. Southington Apple Harvest Festival – Oct 3–5 & Oct 10–12 (Southington, CT)
Connecticut's largest fall festival, just off Route 6, with parades, fireworks, and apple treats galore.
4. WaterFire Providence “Flames of Hope” – Oct 4 (Providence, RI)
Iconic river bonfires in downtown Providence, along the Route 6 corridor.
5. Choo Choo Swap Meet – Oct 4 (Bishop, CA)
Automotive treasures at the Tri-County Fairgrounds, a great stop at the western end of Route 6.
6. Bishop Fall Colors Car Show – Oct 3–5 (Bishop, CA)
Classic autos, music, and Sierra Nevada fall colors.
7. Warwick Applefest – Oct 5 (Warwick, NY)
A Hudson Valley favorite—apple pies, crafts, and live music just minutes from Route 6.
8. Honesdale Harvest & Heritage Days – Oct 11–12 (Honesdale, PA)
Historic PA Route 6 hosts local artisans, music, and family fun in charming downtown Honesdale.
9. Ashtabula County Covered Bridge Festival – Oct 11–12 (Jefferson, OH)
Celebrate Ohio's covered bridge heritage with tours, crafts, and seasonal fun along Route 6.
10. Lone Pine Film Festival – Oct 9–12 (Lone Pine, CA)
Western film screenings, parades, and tours of famous movie locations near the Route 6 corridor.

✨ Bonus Highlight: PA's Kinzua Bridge Skywalk will be open through Oct 31, offering unmatched views of fall foliage on Route 6.

Plan Your October Road Trip

Whether you're chasing fall foliage in Pennsylvania, apple pie in Connecticut, or classic cars in California, Route 6 is your ultimate coast-to-coast festival highway this October.